Sunset Park Elementary School in Pueblo, Colorado, has the honor of saying that they have not only 1, but 2 Destination Imagination Teams that have worked hard and qualified for Global Finals in Knoxville, TN. There is a catch.... we need money to get to go. We have 13 kids and 2 coaches that need to get to Knoxville to represent Sunset Park and all of Pueblo. So please, anything you give will go directly to sponsor these smiling faces get to Tennessee. We also only have 2 1/2 weeks to make all this money, so please consider us for your wonderful donation.

Quite a cast of characters!!! We are proud of you!

Thanks for your great support at our first Bully Proofing Night. The presenter said best turnout they had ever seen:) No Surprise Yearlings!

FRIDAY, MAY 19TH

This article is to inform you about an early release we are scheduling for May 19 for all students. Please mark your calendars and note that all elementary students will be released at Noon on that day. Transportation services are aware of this and have modified their schedules to accommodate all bus routes for the day. The reason for the early release is so that our staff can receive the elementary No Bully Foundational Training. This early release will affect all elementary schools in our district. It will also include all grade levels at Goodnight, Irving, Corwin, and Heroes.

Again, the early release is scheduled for May 19 only and will only affect schedules at our elementary schools. All grade levels at Goodnight, Irving, Corwin and Heroes will also be released at 12 Noon that day. Lunch will still be provided.

WHAT TO EXPECT WITH THE LEADER IN ME

Thanks for your dedication to our Yearlings!!!

Crazy to think that this newsletter will be the last of 2016-17, but there you go... Our first year as a Leader in Me school have brought many celebrations. We appreciate the support of our parent, talents, money, effort and encouragement supporters as we plodded through. I believe that the second year of living the Habits will be even more powerful. The staff of Sunset Park will be getting trained on the academic piece of The Leader in Me on Wednesday, June 7th and at this training we will learn how to teach our students about Leadership Notebooks and set the foundation for school wide student led conferences in the Fall. WE appreciate your on-going support and it is exciting to see where this will take us and our community.
